

Harrison School to celebrate its 50th birthday on Oct. 20

Harrison School is inviting everyone to its birthday party—and there will be 50 candles on the cake.

The Kindergarten to Grade 5 school, which opened on Rexway Dr. in Georgetown half a century ago in 1957, is hosting an Open House on October 20.

Between 1 and 4 p.m., former students, teachers, principals and the community are invited to meet and greet in the gymnasium. Already RSVPing are former principals Hal Henry, Milree Latimer, Max Jackson, and Grant Clatworthy. Also attending is former principal Bob McCaw, who is now one of Canada's foremost wildlife photographers.

Current principal Anna Drummond, will host the presentations and cake-cutting at 2 p.m.

Each grade level is decorating their bulletin boards for one of the decades and some former students have loaned memorabilia or photocopies of class pictures and other interesting things. Anyone willing to loan some Harrison School-related items, should e-mail: harrison's_50th@hdsb.ca
