Ben Nicolucci and Will McDonald of Georgetown's peewee AA Raiders put the squeeze on a Mississauga North Stars' skater at the Best of the Best Thanksgiving Classic tournament held last weekend at the Alcott Arena. A late comeback attempt by the Raiders just fell short as the North Stars prevailed 3-2 and eventually made it to the finals for the division, while Georgetown was eliminated by Aurora in the semifinals.

At Best of Best tournament

Local teams reach eight finals

Georgetown Raider teams made the championship games in eight of the 13 divisions at last weekend's Best of the Best Thanksgiving Challenge held at three arenas in Halton Hills.

Hosted by the Georgetown Minor Hockey Association, the four-day tournament drew 75 teams and four Raider squads emerged with Harvest Cup titles.

Minor Peewee AE

The Topper's Pizza Raiders of Georgetown went undefeated in four games to win the Harvest Cup championship in the minor peewee additional entry rep division at the Best of the Best tournament, outscoring their opponents 28-3.

Quinn Harding led the charge in the final contest scoring twice, and Keegan Martinec netted the clincher in the 4-2 victory over Caledon.

Preliminary round— Georgetown 4, Caledon 1; Georgetown 9, Hamilton 0; Georgetown 11, Markham 0

Championship— Georgetown 4, Caledon 2
 Tournament scoring: Brad Ranson (6G, 2A); Callum Biehn (4G, 4A); Drew Hillock (2G, 6A); Martinec (4G, 3A); Harding (3G, 4A); Matt Hopson (2G, 3A); Andrew Pottruff (G, 4A); Dane Firhoj, Jake Spence (2G, 2A); Lucas Jenkins, Mark Bowen (G, 2A); Eric Speers, Mitchell Catoen (3A); Brodie Briscoe (2A); Joe Wallace, Theo Dol (SO).

Atom AE

A 3-0-1 record that included a couple of wins over Caledon netted the Georgetown Raiders the championship for the atom AE division at last weekend's Best of the Best tourney.
