Local 'moms' the best

A group of "soccer moms" from Halton Hills enjoyed another successful campaign in 2007 by recently winning the regular season and playoff championship tournament in the Brampton Adult Soccer Association's Masters 35+ Women's League. Blue Bayou gave up just two goals all season in league play but faced a tough challenge in the year-end tourney, needing penalty kicks to defeat the Brampton Phantoms 3-2 in the semifinals before knocking off D&A Collections of Brampton 3-0 in the title game. Team Blue Bayou members (front, from left) are: Gerry Gribbons, Lisa Bonofiglio, MVP Alison Hofland, Doreen Vandersluis, Kafi Ealey, Skye Bowen, Sylvia Gray. Back row: Cindy Ferguson, Alison Hendriks, Helen Mick, Julie Cutting, Liz Blaauwendraat, Anita Woudstra, Maria Mifsud, Janine Bergsma, Dawn Kalsbeek, Gena Allen. Absent: Kim Chambers, Louise Glen.

Bulldogs hoping to cap perfect season

The Halton Hills Bulldogs will attempt a franchise first by completing a perfect 10-0 record during the regular season in their final two games of the Ontario Lacrosse Association under-19 men's field league this Sunday in Wallaceburg.

First place in the Division II East standings will be at stake when the 'Dogs take on 7-1-0 Kitchener-Waterloo in one of Sunday's matchups, with Halton Hills also taking on Centre Wellington.

The 8-0-0 Bulldogs look to be in top form heading into next weekend's provincial championships at Mississauga's Hershey Centre fields. They displayed tough defence in a pair of wins last weekend in Orangeville, defeating Burlington 9-3 and Essex 11-2 in a contest that was tied at two after the first quarter.

Versus Burlington, Peter Laidlaw and Nick Rose each hit for hat tricks and JJ Laforet added a pair. Matt Lord had a single marker and Adam McGourty chipped in two assists.

Rose (4), Justin Reid (2), McGourty, Nic Grasby, Matt Laidlaw, Lord and Jack Matthews found the net against Essex.
