Halton Wants Youth to be Housing Heroes

Affordable housing is critical to creating healthy communities in Halton. To raise awareness about the need for more affordable housing, Halton Region has launched the "Be a Hero. Be a Voice for Affordable Housing." contest. Students in grades 10-12 are invited to create an entry of their choice, such as a video, a song or a poster, that best captures why Halton needs more affordable housing. Grand Prize winner receives $500, Runner-Up, $250, and $100 each for four Honourable Mentions. Submissions are due by 5 p.m. on November 2, 2007. An awards ceremony will be held on November 21.

For contest materials or more information, students can visit www.halton.ca, or contact Jen Lenard-Benson at housingcontest@halton.ca or 905-825-6000, ext. 4432.
