Rescued from Newfoundland

Neglected Jace is 'trusting, loving and sweet'

JUDITH-ANNE KOLU
Upper Credit Humane Society volunteer

What can we not say about Jace? After meeting him, what a funny, loving, gorgeous bundle of canine magnetism he is and Jace exercises such a tug on the heartstrings, he is not easily forgotten.

Jace is a large 80 lbs + big, hairy black/brown/beige three-year-old Bouvier de Flanders mix, with the added appeal of a bottom that looks as though he sat in white paint which continues up the underside of his tail. These cute markings are only noticed when walking behind him and add to the "special package" which is Jace.

Jace grew up in Newfoundland where he spent all three years of his life tied to a pickup living under the cab. How lonely he must have been with just the seagulls for company! All circumstances are not known but we do know his days were numbered by someone, until he was rescued and flown to Ontario, where he found a safe haven at Upper Credit Humane Society. We are privileged to have Jace with us and are looking for a very special home for this courageous, loving canine.

If I was casting a movie Jace would be the star. He is just the type of dog you see in a heartrending movie with a little boy and I am sure it would become a classic. Jace showed his "star quality" when posing for his picture for the Web and also for one-of-our-soon to be released Christmas cards. He was a natural! We find it truly amazing that anyone would have ever thought of euthanizing such a unique boy!

Jace presents as a strong dog but not unruly. He knows how to sit and shake both paws, loves to play fetch, a little too determined on leash but often he stops and leans against your legs looking up with those expressive eyes framed with wiry standup hair just imploring you to pet him and whisper sweet nothings to him for as long as you want!

How this neglected dog came to be so sound in spirit

we do not know, but it says a lot about Jace that he is trusting, loving and sweet, and he has never shown any negative side to his personality and is always anxiously waiting to show his love of people.

Jace has been deemed very intelligent, willing to learn new things, his quick mind needs a job, training would be fun for Jace and he would excel with a family who want to share in the thrill of seeing a dog unfold to his true potential.

Jace will certainly conjure up a lot of attention with his unusual, handsome breed mix and comical expressions. To see him in his run or around the Shelter, brings a smile to your face so if you think Jace could star in your family's movie, call the Shelter at 519-833-2287 and come and see this deserving canine... he certainly wants to meet you!

Thrift shop auctions

The UCHS Thrift Shop monthly Silent Auctions began in September. The first one was a great success.

Auctions begin on the first Tuesday of every month, and end with live bidding at 4:30 p.m. on the last Saturday of each month. (In Dec, on the 22nd).

Photos of the items up for bid can be found on the UCHS web site www.uppercredit.com. October's auction included signed Johnny Bower photos, fine jewelry, and a 1902 Canadian cookbook.

In November look for some Beswick horses, a ruby ring, an Lucy Maud Montgomery first edition, and other wonderful Christmas gifts. For details call the Shop at 905-702-8661.

Paws for the Cause

Petsathome Georgetown recently announced its Paws for the Cause campaign with proceeds going to the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation (CBCF).

Petsathome will donate 10 per cent from the sale of each reflective paw print lanyard or pink ribbon carabiner to the CBCF. The lanyard sports three raised pink foam paw prints on either side with the clear buckle showing the pink breast cancer ribbon. The pink ribbon carabiner comes with the fun inscription of "look after your puppies". The cost of the lanyards is $8.75 (plus tax) while the carabiner sells for $5.75 (plus tax).

For more information on how to purchase a lanyard or carabiner visit www.petsathome.ca or call 905-873-8579.
