At annual Oldtimers tournament Local squad wins division title

Thirty-four teams from around south-central Ontario skated in the 23rd-annual Georgetown Hockey Heritage Council Oldtimers' Hockey Tournament last weekend at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex.

The four-day event featured six divisions ranging from men's over-35 to over-50. One of the seven Georgetown-based teams entered, Halton Hills Rad & Tire, claimed the championship trophy in the over-35 C category.

Over-35 C

Four quick second-period goals helped secure a 5-2 victory for Halton Hills Rad & Tire in the final against the Erin Ancients on Sunday afternoon.

Brian Prowse (2), Rich Miaskowski, Doug Butler and Steve Healy found net for the champs, who had defeated Georgetown's Honeywell 3-0 earlier in the day to make the final.

The Halton Hills Grinders were knocked out of contention with a 5-3 loss to Erin on Sunday. Deryk Clark, Brent McConomy and Paul Cook tallied for the Grinders.

Over-50 B

A couple of first-period goals stood up for the St. Catharines Old Ducks in their 2-1 win over Georgetown's Sports Unlimited on Sunday for top spot in the division.

Pat Maloney had the lone Sports Unlimited marker.

Over-50 D

Georgetown's Cobras went 0-2-1 in the tournament, which included a 4-4 tie with the Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen. Joe Cardosa (2), Barry Duke and Roger Shea scored for the Cobras.

The Tottenham Polar Bears downed the Erin Old Masters 4-2 in the championship game.

Over-35 E/F

The Georgetown Flatliners, who won the OMHA juvenile AA championship 16 years ago with Charlie Hanman as coach, enjoyed a reunion at the GHHC tourney. They were edged 4-3 by the Meadowvale Warriors in the consolation final. Rory Kennedy (2) and Rob Kazlauski scored for the Flatliners.

Two Oakville squads met in the final with the Renegades blanking the Moody Blues 4-0.

Over-50 C

The Brampton Falcons defeated the Guelph Over-50 Fossils in the title matchup.

Over-45 D

In the championship game, the Thursday Thunder of Toronto beat the Brampton Direct Hit All-Stars 5-2.

DUFFERINrockstar of the week November 6, 2007

Trevor Livingston

plays indoor soccer for the purple Under-13 team. He has played outdoor soccer with Acton Villa for 5 years, and this is his fourth year indoors - in four different venues. Indoors, his favourite position is forward, while he prefers a defensive role outdoors. He rates the Dufferin Centre field as "fantastic" as it is so much flatter than the outdoor fields!
