

Mills, Duffield spark Acton victory quarter," said Tennier, whose buddy Fry also played football this fall for the Georgetown senior Rebels.

"It's been a really good experience and I've learned a lot from the players. We got to see a different style of basketball and learned to deal with things a bit better. Instead of being aggressive like you would if you were playing, just take things passive and it'll be better in the long run."

Mills finished up the day with a team-high 10 points, while spunky point guard Victoria Duffield chipped in eight points and supplied boundless energy, despite feeling ill prior to game time.

"We just have really good communication and we understand where everyone's going to be," noted Duffield, who spent two years at Christ the King in Georgetown before transferring to her hometown school.

"We all get along really well off the court and that helps us on the court too. It's been like seven to 10 years since Acton had a team at OFSAA so this is a big step for us."

There are 16 teams entered in the tournament, which gets underway on Wednesday with preliminary round action.

Volleyball

Also looking for a berth in the provincial championships are the Georgetown senior Rebels, who will face Cardinal Newman in Hamilton (today) Friday at 4 p.m., with the Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference GHAC title at stake.

Cardinal Newman defeated Bishop Ryan on Wednesday to determine the Steeltown rep that will take on the undefeated Rebels. The OFSAA quadruple-A tournament will take place next week in Mississauga.

ATHLETES of the Week

CHRIST THE KING	ACTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL	GEORGETOWN DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL
David Przytula	Steph Baker	Marissa Clark
Taylor Dowdall	Kathleen Dennis	Shawn Fawcett

Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Steph Baker and Kathleen Dennis. Both Baker and Dennis are members of the Bearcats senior basketball team and were chosen for their recent game against Brampton Christian Academy, from which the girls advance to OFFSA. Baker, who plays post was chosen for her three baskets, and Dennis, a guard on the team was selected for her 4 points and good defense.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Marissa Clark and Shawn Fawcett. Clark, a member of the Rebels cross country team, was recognized for her great performance at OFFSA, being a midget runner who moved up to junior, and helped the team place second. Fawcett, a middle linebacker on the Rebels junior football team, was cited for his good hitting and tackling against St. Thomas Aquinas.

Christ the King Catholic High School Athletes of the Week are David Przytula and Taylor Dowdall. Przytula, a running back on the Jaguars junior basketball team, was selected for his great yardage against Lester B. Pearson. Dowdall, a point guard on the Jaguars senior basketball team, was recognized for being the point leader for the team, as well as captain.
