

Local artist's work featured

Longtime Georgetown resident and visual artist Barbara Ariss-Stroh-Wasser is a featured artist at the Solo Visual Art Show in Meadowvale Theatre in Mississauga until Monday, Nov. 26.

Ariss-Stroh-Wasser does not limit herself to any style and medium, but says an artist as a person has to evolve and grow constantly and explore at all times. She believes that it is her duty as an artist to represent the ideas of the past, present and future in a positive light to convey the idea that there is always hope for each individual and for all people.

Her work falls into various categories— items for gifts, paintings that are decorative for residential or commercial areas, art work for installations and art work that reflects our societies to be usually shown at juried art shows.

There are about 40 pieces, mostly large, some medium and small, abstracts, minimalism, and decorative of which 35 pieces are new works featuring large abstracts on Bach's Goldberg variations, Brahms's Concerto in D Minor, 2 Mozart's Concertos K 271 and Concerto in D Minor, 5 paintings on Beethoven Symphonies # 3, # 5, # 6, # 9 and the Pastorale one large abstract on the Acoustic Sound waves of a concert hall in vertical, horizontal and lateral lines, six large pieces depicting the various sections of the orchestra and its instrumental and vocal soloists.

Ariss-Stroh-Wasser is a member of the Credit Valley Artisans, Palette and Pencil Guild in Georgetown, Beaux Arts in Brampton, Fine Arts Society in Milton, Neilson Park in Etobicoke, Lakeshore Arts in Toronto, Art Works in Oakville and Life Drawing in Eden Mills. Her work is shown in various galleries and venues in the Greater Toronto Area, Collingwood, and Minden and in three galleries in Queensland, Australia.

The theatre is open Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. For evening and weekend viewings call the theatre, 905-615-4720, ext. 2586.

GREENHOUSES

A GREENS CHRISTMAS

One need look no further than the wonders of nature to spice up their home for the holidays. Fresh greens make for a great festive feel indoors or out. Decorate your entrance to welcome the season with great selections of evergreens, berries and twigs.

Great for planters, wreaths, door décor, mantles and centerpieces a huge selection is waiting to inspire the decorator in you this holiday season.

When creating your holiday masterpiece remember to keep it as lush and full as possible. Hemlock, fir, cedar and pine are great evergreens to lend support and texture to your arrangement. Ilex, Manzanita Berry and Pepperberry add fabulous colour and shape. Curly Willow, Dogwood and Rose Hips complete the ensemble adding both colour and dimension. Exciting new additions arrive all the time so this week check out Variegated Holly and glossy Magnolia leaves.

Check out our Greens and Dreams rooms this season and let your imagination bring festive inspirations to life.
