

Impressive debut

Seven-year-old Andrew Whelan of Stewarttown made quite an impression in his first year of competing in the Canadian Rookie Karting Championship, finishing third overall out of 30 drivers in the points series while also receiving a sportsmanship award. Despite racing against competitors as much as five years older than himself in the Cadet Division, Whelan posted two wins, two runner-up finishes and a third-place result in the 10-race season, with an average lap speed of 63 km/h.

Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Cameron Shortt and Corey Tennier. Shortt, a member of the Bearcats cross country team, was chosen for qualifying to compete at OFFSA. Tennier, who coaches the senior girls basketball team, was selected for his dedication and contribution to the team, organizing practices and creating the plays for the team.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Aaron Francis and Jody Stenberger. Francis, a power on the Rebels junior volleyball team, was cited for his great spikes and hits, as well as some good passing against TAB. Stenberger, a member of the senior Rebels football team, was selected for his good blocking and running against St Thomas Aquinas.

Christ the King Catholic High School Athletes of the Week are Antonie Furlani and Sarah Hickman. Furlani, a defensive end and offensive tackle on the Jaguars' senior football team, was chosen for his five great tackles in a game against Assumption. Hickman, a guard on the Jaguars' junior basketball team, was recognised for her good defense against Burlington Central recently.
