Colts bank on 'point machine'

But Barrie's third-round draft pick got off to an impressive start at training camp, and has kept offering reasons for why he should be kept around—including his winning tally Thursday.

"It was an upstairs wire that beat him (J. P. Anderson) on the blocker side. I basically just wanted to put it on net for someone to crash the net and get the rebound, but it went in."

"Hearing the crowd (2,731 fans at the Molson Centre) cheer was amazing, and it felt good not to have to wait long for that first goal."

Of course getting on the score-sheet has never been much of a problem for Sgarbossa, and Williamson doesn't see a jump to major-junior doing much to curb that trend.

The coach's actions would certainly seem to support that outlook, as Campbellville's OHL newcomer found himself centring the first line (between veterans Cory McGillis and Alex Hutchings) and getting plenty of powerplay time through the season opener.

"He's a point machine," said Williamson. "He was one of the best players in camp and just won't go away. He's going to be a star at this level."

Sgarbossa knows he's still got a long way to go to live up to that, especially with regard to his overall game.

"Our coach's philosophy is defence first, so that's something I've got to work on. I've just got to keep working hard and taking every step forward that I can."

Sgarbossa wasn't the only local Halton Hurricanes' product to score in his OHL debut. Georgetown South's Steve Silas scored what turned out to be the winner last Saturday as his Belleville Bulls upended the Peterborough Petes 4-2.

Andy Bathgate, also of Georgetown, added an assist for the Bulls in his second season with the club.

ATHLETES of the Week

CHRIST THE KING  Taylor Burns	ACTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL  Allison Baker	GEORGETOWN DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL  Chris Pett
 Will Petryniak	 Renee Martineau	NO PHOTO AVAILABLE Lindsay Poulton

Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Allison Baker and Renee Martineau. Baker, a point guard on the Bearcats junior basketball team, was chosen for her energetic play against Milton District High School. Martineau, a shooting guard on the Bearcats senior girls basketball team, was selected for her spirit and leadership on the team.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Chris Pett and Lindsay Poulton. Pett, who plays right side on the senior Rebels volleyball team, was cited for his good hitting in two recent games against Assumption. Poulton, a centre on the Rebels girls junior basketball team, was chosen for leading the team in scoring.

Christ the King Catholic High School Athletes of the Week are Taylor Burns and Will Petryniak. Burns, a point guard on the Jaguars junior girls basketball team, was selected for her exceptional leadership on the team, in a game against T. A. Blakelock. Petryniak, who plays corner and back-up quarterback on the Jaguars was cited for his good defence in an exhibition game against Loyola.
