Winners in the Halton Hills Public Library Summer Reading Club were presented with a TD Canada Trust bank account with $25 in it, after their names were drawn from a group of kids who qualified by reading a certain amount over the summer. Recipients and presenters included (front, from left) Shelby Miller, Benoit Lamothe, Rachel Love, Julia Flor, Victoria Montgomery and Benjamin Haden. In back, Madalyn Murray, Brenda Dawicki, Branch Manager TD Investment Services, Mountainview Road; Mark Pierce, Branch Manager TD Canada Trust, Main St.; Genny Criminale, Branch manager TD Canada Trust Guelph St. and Ian Wyeld.

Spaces still available in some preschool programs

There's still time to register for a preschool program at Halton Hills Public Library! We offer programs for children aged six months to five years. You can register online at www.library.hhpl.on.ca or in person at either branch.

The Georgetown Branch is located at 9 Church St., and the Acton Branch is at 17 River St. beside Robert Little School. For details call 905-873-2681 ext. 2520 or 519-853-0301.

Cocoa Club at the Library

If you like to read and are between the ages of 9 and 12, you should join Halton Hills Public Library's Cocoa Club! We'll talk about books, make some new friends and have some hot chocolate too! Sign up in person at the Children's and Youth Services Desk at the Georgetown Branch (9 Church St.) or call: 905-873-2681 ext. 2520.

At the library

We'll meet the first Thursday of every month in the Georgetown Branch at 6:30 pm beginning Oct. 2. There are limited spaces.
