Artists show off talent in October exhibits

A number of local artists are participating in art exhibits local and internationally this month.

Lynda Pogue
Georgetown artist Lynda Pogue will be participating in Beyond Borders: Exhibition of Fine Art from Canada at the Agora Gallery, Chelsea in New York City. Scheduled to run from October 1-21, the collection will feature a captivating selection of Lynda Pogue's inspirational works. Pogue's work may be seen on http://www.agora-gallery.com/ArtistInvite/Lynda\_Pogue.spx

Barbara Ariss-Stroh-Wasser
Barbara Ariss-Stroh-Wasser of Georgetown will exhibit her artwork in another solo show at the Meadowvale Theatre in Mississauga from October 1 to November 1. The theme of the multi-media exhibit is the synchronization of colour and texture in search for the fourth dimension. The exhibit will feature new work and selected pieces from the recent exhibit at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre, and special pieces from the previous year.

"I hope to evoke happy feelings and other positive emotions with most of the pieces, and with others thoughtful questions in regards to our human existence today and in future on our planet," said Ariss. She says that she is at the beginning of a search for new solutions, and hopes to find them step-by-step.

Sonja Mortimer
Sonja Mortimer of Acton who specializes in abstract and realistic painting is participating in a four-women exhibit, Passion: A Common Thread at the Paul Morin Gallery in Rockwood, from Oct. 2-24. The opening reception will be held on Sunday, Oct. 5, noon to 5 p.m. The Gallery is located at 120 Main St. S. in Rockwood.

"The subject matter of my art is essentially landscape reinterpreted, altered or transformed which reflect those momentary glimpses of wonder," said Mortimer.

Joining Mortimer will be sculptor and painter Rosalinde Baumgartner of Hillsburgh, abstract painter Lucille Weber of Inglewood and fibre artist Sonia Bukata of Erin.

"Our common thread is our passion for the work we do, which is likely born of our European heritage. We all moved to this area for the serenity and the nature and now spend our days search for joy," said Bukata.

Proceeds from a silent auction will be donated to the East Wellington Advisory Group, an organization dedicated to serving the needs of the community.

Halton Woodcarving Club

The Halton Woodcarving Club is sponsoring a carving competition for area wood carvers on Saturday, Oct. 4, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Georgetown Market Place.

One of the features of the competition is that the public will be asked to select their choices for best carvings in seven separate categories.

This will be a great chance to witness the excellence in wood carving that area carvers produce along with actively participating in the judging process. For more information contact Bert Hutchinson, 905-877-3569.

Artists Among Us

A group of about 40 artists, working in many different media, will present Artists Among Us, a show in the Gallery of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre from Oct. 7 to Nov. 2.

A meet-the-artist reception will be held on Thursday, Oct. 9, from 5-8 p.m. Artwork includes painting, drawing, photography, mixed media, pottery, fibre arts, glass, sculpture and more. The show runs during library hours, plus on October 11 and 12, from 2-5 p.m. Free admission.
