

Carving time

This is the time of year for carving pumpkins and turkeys, but John McCartney, a 10-year member of the Halton Woodcarving Club, was among those taking part in Saturday's woodcarving competition held at the Georgetown Market Place. The public was able to vote for their favourite carving in seven categories. Photo by Calvin Dyke

Region celebrates Week of the Child

Halton Region is celebrating the Week of the Child next week from Tuesday to Friday by hosting special activities for children, families and early childhood educators at regional daycare centres. Local festivities will be held at the Regional Childcare Centre located on Maple Avenue in Georgetown. Events will include community presentations on topics ranging from dental health to the environment, mystic drum workshops, storytellers and more. The activities will vary in each childcare centre.

Local driver not facing charges; Halton Police apologize for error

Halton Regional Police have apologized for releasing incorrect information to the media which was subsequently published Wednesday in The Independent & Free Press.

According to Det. Sgt. Murray Drinkwater, Jose Santos, 38, of Mountainview Rd. S. was not charged with impaired driving and having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood after a vehicle was pulled over in the Mountainview Rd and Barber Dr. area about 12:50 a.m. Saturday.

Drinkwater issued the apology immediately Wednesday after learning of the error.

Police blotter Domestic dispute incidents result in charges to local men

A Georgetown man has been charged with three counts each of break and enter and breach of recognition in connection with a domestic incident at a Georgetown home between Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning.

Halton Police do not release the names of individuals charged in domestic dispute incidents to protect the identity of the victim.

A 36-year-old Georgetown man has been charged with assault causing bodily harm and mischief to property stemming from a domestic dispute with a female early Tuesday morning.

Graffiti was spray-painted on a portable at Christ the King Secondary School sometime between last Friday and Monday.

An IBM laptop, valued at $1,000, was stolen from a vehicle parked at the Georgetown Market Place sometime between 3-4 p.m. on Monday afternoon.
