

Light Up The Hills

Light Up The Hills will debut in Georgetown this year with a month-long seasonal lighting display in the Dominion Gardens. Organized by local volunteers, its aim is to provide festive energy-efficient lighting and promote Halton Hills as a caring community. The committee will have a display booth at the Georgetown Farmers Market tomorrow (Saturday), 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. to promote the new organization and to sell LED bulbs for the Tree of Hope located in Dominion Gardens. A percentage of the proceeds will go to the Georgetown Hospital Foundation. Decorating the Tree of Hope in Dominion Gardens are Light Up The Hills organizers, from left, Diane Penrice, Santa Claus, Moira Robinson, Gerry Kentner and Dave Kentner. Ignition Day for the whole park will be on Dec. 1. The organization will also be at the Community Open House in the mall on Oct. 18. For details go to www.lightupthehills.com.
