CANADIAN PROFESSIONAL GOLFERS' ASSOCIATION

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT

The Canadian Professional Golfers' Association, a member based, non-profit organization serving over 3,500 golf professionals across Canada, requires an Executive Assistant to join its office staff at Blue Springs Golf Club, its home in Acton, Ontario.
Reporting to the Executive Director, the successful candidate will be responsible for providing day-to-day administrative support to the Executive Director and executive support for the Board of Directors. He or she will have strong organizational and project management skills along with superior verbal and written communication skills. Preparing briefing notes, packages and status reports for the Executive Director as required in response to questions and emerging issues along with taking independent action where appropriate in responding to or redirecting requests are major components of this position. A university or college graduate in a related field, at least five years' experience in a similar role and the ability to work and communicate in both official languages are all desirable.
Salary is commensurate with experience. For further information regarding the Canadian PGA and to view the Executive Assistant job profile, visit www.cpga.com/about. Click on Careers at the National Office. Please submit your resume along with a covering letter to:
