Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Dave Carscadden and Victor Thompson. Both are members of the Bearcats senior volleyball team, and were chosen for leading their team to a second place win in a recent EC Drury tournament. Carscadden, who plays power, was selected for his good passing, hits and blocks, while Thompson, a power and setter on the team, was cited for his good serving and setting.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Maggie Darling and Nicole Bond. Both girls are members of the Rebels basketball team, with Darling playing junior and Bond a senior. Darling, playing post, was chosen for her 13 points and 15 rebounds against BR, while versatile Bond, playing guard and post, was recognized for her accurate passing, in a 42-40 win over BR.

Christ the King Catholic High School Athletes of the Week are Cierra Henry and Brendan Hynes. Henry, a forward on the junior Jaguars basketball team, was selected for being the top scorer on the team in the last three games. Hynes, a member of the Jaguars golf team, was chosen for scores of 76 and 81 and winning 15 of 18 points in match play, keeping the team in a position to win.

OUR YOUTH... REACHING OUT AND MAKING A DIFFERENCE

If you know a young person, aged 6 to 17, who is involved in worthwhile community service; a special person who is contributing while living with a limitation; a youth who has performed an act of heroism; or a 'good kid' who shows a commitment to making life better for others, doing more than is normally expected of someone their age - help us recognize their contribution - nominate them today!

Nominations are now being accepted for the Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year Awards
The strength of our community lies in solid citizens. Today's youth are tomorrow's leaders.
Nominations will be accepted until November 30, 2008
