Local artist has NYC showing

Georgetown artist Lynda Pogue (centre) discusses the unusual techniques she uses for one of her mixed-media paintings, Pulsing, on opening night of her exhibit at the Agora Gallery in New York City earlier this month. The exhibition, called Beyond Borders, featured 10 artists from across Canada. Last year two of Pogue's paintings were sold—one of which was sent to Israel. Pogue's work will continue to be displayed until the end of November. Photo submitted

Songwriters featured in Saturday concert

The Source of the Song 12 acoustic songwriter's concert will take place at the Glen Williams Town Hall tomorrow (Saturday), 2-5 p.m., hosted by local songwriter Bruce Madole, and featuring original songs performed by three special guest songwriters: Suzie Vinnick, Allister Bradley, and Jason Barry.

Winner of multiple awards for her songwriting, singing, and instrumental work, Vinnick is just returning from an East Coast tour with her brand new CD, Happy Here.

Singer/songwriter Allister Bradley has released two CDs, including award nominations for Canadian Smooth Jazz Songwriter of the Year (2006) and a Toronto Indie Music Awards nomination for Best Male Performer. Allister is a staff instructor at the Humber College Summer

Songwriting Workshop, and also works as a producer, and film composer.

Songwriter and guitarist Jason Barry has won numerous awards—including Guitarist of the Year, and has toured as a sideman with such artists as Aaron Lines and Jason McCoy.

"We've always talked about the magic that happens when songwriters perform their own material—it's the reason for this series," says Madole. "However, I am always ecstatic when I can bring together such a stellar and talented group of guests. You just know that sparks are gonna fly!"

Tickets for the event are $12 in advance and $15 at the door. They are available at Studio 7 or at the Williams Mill Gallery, 515 Main Street in Glen Williams.

ATHLETES of the Week

CHRIST THE KING	ACTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL	GEORGETOWN DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

Josh Kolenda	Laura Brooks	Alex Jarvis

Katie Black	Steph Baker	Rob Cutting

Acton District High School Athletes of the Week are Steph Baker and Laura Brooks. Grade 12 student Baker, a post player with the Bearcats' senior girls' basketball team, dropped in six points in Acton's 25-19 win over White Oaks and played well defensively. Brooks, a first-year high-schooler, led the junior Bearcat hoops squad in scoring in a 48-33 defeat to White Oaks.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Alexandra Jarvis and Rob Cutting. Jarvis, a Grade 10 student qualified for this Saturday's Ontario championships in Samia after her second-place result in the junior girls' race at the Golden Horseshoe meet in Dundas. Cutting, a fifth-year member of the Rebel senior football team, rushed for over 200 yards in a loss to Holy Trinity last week and has scored 10 touchdowns this season.

Christ the King Athletes of the Week are Josh Kolenda and Katie Black. Kolenda has captained Ck's junior Jaguars on the volleyball court this fall as the team challenges for a spot in next week's playoffs. Black was selected for her performance and leadership skills in the school's musical theatre program.

SMOKING is it worth it?

Someday, you'll be offered a cigarette or be tempted to smoke. Before you start, think about it: every drag you take screws up your body.

Smoking can cause permanent damage to your body. Once a person starts, it becomes extremely tough to quit. And did we mention all that cash you'll be blowing in the process?

So, if you're tempted to start, ask yourself, "Is it worth it?"
