Mothering Sunday
Mothering Sunday in the United Kingdom falls on the fourth Sunday of Lent (typically March or early April); it is commonly called "Mother's Day" but has no direct connection to the American practice. It is believed to have originated from the practice of visiting ones mother church annually, which meant most families would be reunited on this day.

Most historians believe that young apprentices and young women in servitude were released by their masters that weekend in order to visit their families.

On Mother's Day morning some children follow the tradition of serving their mothers breakfast in bed. Other children will give their mothers gifts which they have made themselves or bought in stores. Adults give their mothers red carnations, the official Mother's Day flower. If their mothers are deceased they may bring white carnations to their grave sites. This is a busy day of the year for restaurants. On her special day, family members do not want Mom to cook dinner!

Best Mom

My mom is the best mom in the whole world because she makes me happy when I am sad when I fell down the stair. I had a big bruise but it is all gone. I was crying really badly my mom is so nice to me. She bought me a pair of clothes.

Melissa

My mom is the best in the Whole wide world becous she lets me go to sylvan. If I didn't go to it I wouldn't be so good at reading.
She lets us go to MicDondlds. She lets us go to the movies and the move store. She works so I and the family can do everything we do. She lets us visit my family and friends. But most of all She Lovse me.
I Love her to.
