

No trace of CO
 Acton firefighters could not determine what triggered three inter connected carbon monoxide alarms at a Ballinafad home at 4:21 on Friday afternoon. Crews swept the Abbitt Crescent house for the deadly gas, but found no trace.

Police/Fire Report

Library light melts
 A report of a burning yard light on the library lawn brought Acton firefighters to River Street at 9:07 on Saturday night to find a lamp pole sparking, smoking and melting. Firefighters got into the library, and when they found that a breaker in the electrical panel had tripped several times, they advised that an electrician be called.
