

DEATHS

Pearl and Jack's 65th wedding anniversary

Rol (Hennessey) Caroline Pearl 91 born on June 23, 1914 passed away suddenly on May 12, 2006 while in Saanich Peninsula Extended Care in Sidney BC. "Pearl" was predeceased in death by her husband John (Jack) in 2004. Pearl and Jack had nurseries and a garden centre in Acton Ontario, and she loved flowers and animals- particularly cats, Pearl was very active in St. Alban', Anglican Church in Acton and in 1984 after retirement, moved to BC where they attended Holy Trinity Church. Pearl had not given birth to any children however she "mothered" many people over the years and will be sadly missed by many family members and dear friends. Pearl's wishes were to be cremated and First Memorial Society of BC will attend to the details with a Memorial Service and interment to follow at Holy Trinity Anglican Church in North Sannich later in the week. Pearl's wishes were that in lieu of flowers were that if anyone would like to contribute, she would like any donations made to the Altar Guild at Holy Trinity on Mount Newton Centre in Saanichton.

Drunk driver

A 35-year-old Ransom Street man was charged with dangerous driving and failing to provide a breath sample after his car was seen speeding in Georgetown at 4:25 p.m. on Sunday.

An off-duty OPP officer observed the speeding car riding on a badly damaged rim and followed it to a Steeles Avenue address where Halton police made the arrest.

The man appears in Burlington court on June 23.
