CARD OF THANKS

The family of Alvey Gordon wish to thank his Doctors, Nurses, Medical Staff and Drivers all of whom helped to make his life so much easier. Thanks also to our relatives, friends and the community for their concern, food, flowers and donations. Special thanks to Canon Mark Tiller and the R.C.L. Branch 197 for their tributes and the lunch. Alvey would have been proud.

The Goy Family would like to thank our friends, neighbours, co-workers and business associates for their support at the time of John's death. The calls, visits, food, flowers, donations, cards and other acts of kindness have been overwhelming and greatly appreciated. We are truly blessed to live in such a caring community. The vast number of people, who joined us for the Celebration of John's life, confirmed that he was a special person who touched many lives beyond ours. A Special thanks to Branch 197 and the Legion Ladies for helping us make this celebration happen. A sincere thank you to the good Samaritans who stopped to help John, the Halton Regional Police, the Port Credit OPP, and all emergency and medical personnel in Georgetown and Oakville for their care and compassion. Thank you to the staff of the MacKinnon Funeral Home for their help and guidance in fulfilling John's wishes.

Janet, Jamie and Jenn;
Steve, Kathy and family;
Jeff, Carol and family;
Bob, Colleen and Kayleigh

Heartfelt thanks to our family for our 60th Wedding anniversary party.
