HOT, HUMID WEATHER AND FUR COATS

The recent hot, hazy and humid days (and nights) of summer has made life difficult for many Acton Citizens.

We know that as little as ten minutes in the sun can cause exposed skin to burn. We know that the heat and humidity make daily chores difficult and the nights very uncomfortable.

Now take a moment and imagine what it would be like, if you were wearing a fur coat. Family pets suffer from the heat and humidity even more than we do. Your Halton Regional Police Service and your local Animal Control officers have recently rescued family pets, that unthinking people have left locked in cars or chained in the yard, in the blazing heat all day.

I ask all pet owners to please, provide plenty of fresh water and protection from the sun for all of your pets.

Do not take family pets in the car, even for a short ride in hot weather. It takes just a few minutes in a car interior to reach deadly temperatures. Leaving the car windows down a couple of inches doesn't cool the interior. At home, provide a cool, shady place for your pet to rest during the day.

Take the time to care.
