Losing your credit cards or having them stolen can be a costly and aggravating experience. I want everyone in Acton to know that credit card fraud is a serious problem, for which everyone pays. Protecting your credit cards makes sense.

FOLLOW THESE STEPS TO PROTECT YOURSELF FROM CREDIT CARD CRIME;

- 1) Report lost or stolen credit cards to the card issuer immediately.
- 2) Photocopy your credit cards, so you have a record of the account numbers, expiry dates and card issuers' phone numbers so you can quickly report lost or stolen cards. Keep the photocopies in a convenient, secure location.
- 3) Use caution if you decide to give your credit card number over the phone.
- 4) Never volunteer your card number to callers who tell you that you have won a prize, a trip or are eligible to win a free gift. This could result in unauthorized changes to your account.
- 5) Deal only with reputable companies for mail order transactions. Exercise caution especially if the Company is outside Canada.
- 6) Avoid leaving credit cards or other valuables in a locker at a recreational facility, or public place, even if it can be locked.
- 7) Do not leave your credit cards in your car, or any other vehicle. Many cards are stolen from glove compartments.
- 8) More credit cards are stolen in the workplace than any other location. Never leave them unattended.
- 9) Never lend your credit cards to anyone.
