One year later Woman's body still not identified – OPP

By Rebecca Ring

Last year, a woman's body was found in a picnic area on Highway 7, west of Rockwood, on August 28. One year later, the woman has still not been identified and cause of death is undetermined. Foul play has not been ruled out.

An autopsy conducted in Toronto determined the woman was between 25 and 45 years old. She was approximately 5'6" and 130 lbs. She wore upper dentures and had previously fractured her left cheekbone. She was found wearing a pink bra, labelled "725 Originals" with "31" printed on the left cup, and "Rivage Intimates" thong underwear with a small bow at the waist. She wore an "Atmosphere" tank top, size 10/12 and "Illegal Jeans-wear" corduroy shorts, size nine, with two horizontal zippers on the front pockets.

According to OPP communications officer, Constable Mark Cloes, there have been no advances in the investigation. He said, "In cases like this, police may receive a tip one, two or even several years later that gets the investigation rolling and solved."

EWAG NEWS

EWAG Needs Your Help – Just a Few Hours Per Week

We are looking for two volunteers to assist us with our Seniors' Day Program every second and fourth Tuesday of the month. Volunteer will be picked up at either Rockwood office or the Rockwood United Church and then will accompany the bus driver, arriving back at the church to assist with program crafts, games and meals. For more information, please call Mary Ellen at 519-833-0087.

We are also looking for a Bingo caller every other Monday from 1-3 p.m. at Squire's Lodge. This is just a fun game of Bingo, no stress, no cash stakes – just a lot of laughs. Please call Mary Ellen at 519-833-0087.

EWAG Seniors' Programs for the Fall – Read All About Them... Fall is coming quickly and EWAG's programs for seniors are beginning again in Rockwood.

Please note EWAG shops and offices will be closed for the Labour Day long weekend on both Saturday, September 2 and Monday, September 4.

CAPSULE Comments

*It's important to heed the expiry dates on antibiotics, insulin and nitroglycerin products. The expiry date on tablets and capsules has greater latitude than these items. If you are unsure if a product is good to use, check with your pharmacist.

*A.S.A. (Aspirin) can help during a heart attack. The standard advice is that if you think you are having a heart attack chew on A.S.A. tablet while calling for medical help.

*There are already many self-diagnostic tools available at home to use. One home test being worked on right now is one to test for sexually-transmitted diseases (STD's). Although it probably won't be available for ten years or so, it will save the health system many millions of dollars.

*As of the end of 2004, only 20% of adult Canadians smoked. Out of all the provinces, B.C. had the fewest smokers with just 16% of adult B.C. residents smoking.

*We keep mentioning the ills of smoking. If you need help kicking the habit, talk to our pharmacists, Mary & Maija, about the various methods available to help you achieve that goal. Living the rest of your life smoking-free will enhance the quality of your life and give you better health.
