IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory
Matthew James Virgin
June 18, 1982 - Sept 10, 2001.
Taken from us five years ago
By a tragic tale of fate
We've now come to realize
That you're in a better place
Inspired us truly you did from the start
To not be afraid and to follow
our hearts
There's a piece of you with us
They can't tear apart
Someday we'll meet again
Forever in our hearts
Sadly missed by your friends and family.

tawa Regional Cancer Care, Ottawa Health Research Institute, University of Ottawa, Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario, Hospital for Sick Children, Mount Sinai Hospital, Ontario Cancer Institute/Princess Margaret Hospital, Sunnybrook Health Sciences, University Health Network, University of Toronto, University of Windsor.

During the past 25 years, over $400 million in research dollars raised in Terry's name have contributed to the incredible progress in cancer care, with treatments being so much more effective and diversified than they were in Terry's day.

The Acton Terry Fox Run, with its wonderful volunteers, participants and their sponsors, has been steadfast in its continued dedication to Terry's dream of finding a cure for cancer.

As you drive into Acton, the small year-round sign says it all: "Acton - A Proud Terry Fox Run Community."

Police/Fire Report

Continued from page 14
August 29.

A 911 caller reported seeing the youths setting fires and Acton firefighters extinguished a burning wooden box and called police.

Firefighter hurt
An injured off-duty firefighter used his cell phone to call for help from inside his smashed vehicle following a two-vehicle accident on Highway 25, north of 10 Side Road at 1:43 p.m. on August 29.
Police said a southbound vehicle slowed to make a left turn into a private driveway and collided with a northbound vehicle.

The southbound vehicle rolled and hit a sign on the opposite side of the highway; the driver, a 20-year-old Mississauga woman, received minimal injuries and a passenger was not hurt. She was charged with making an unsafe turn.

The second driver a 52-year-old rural Acton firefighter, suffered minor injuries.
