GETTING SET UP: The big midway at Acton Fair was getting set up early in the week for the influx of children on Friday afternoon. All the Fair needs now is good weather which the weatherman is promising.

Buzz over new Fair building...

Hewitt said details for the tractor pull and the female lumberjack show, there will be a display with a drawing and blueprints of the new building.

He said they keep the fair fresh by booking new entertainment, by bringing back the favourite events and offering good value for the money.

The Fair begins on Friday when hundreds of local school children attend Education Day to learn more about farming and agricultural with displays, demonstrations and fun events.

Gates open to the public at 4 p.m. when the midway kicks into high gear and all of the exhibits and displays – including the 65 animals in the popular Ken Jen petting zoo – open their doors.

The heavy horse pull – always a crowd pleaser – begins at 6 p.m. and Hewitt actually opens the fair at a ceremony before the Miss Acton Fall Fair pageant at 8 p.m. The Essentials will entertain during the Miss Acton pageant.

Gates open at 8 a.m. on Saturday and the schedule includes the beef cattle show, Junior 4-H competition, poultry show, light horse show, always-popular sheep dog demonstrations and the English and Western Gymkhana horse shows.

At noon, the parade snakes its way through the downtown area, making its way to the fairgrounds where there will be a groundbreaking ceremony for the new fair/ soccer facility.

Saturday afternoon, watch for Silver Elvis and a group that has created quite a buzz – the Fleming Loggersports featuring female lumberjacks throwing axes, sawing logs and lighting fires.
