Atoms pot 3 third period goals, edge Fergus 3-2

By Laurence Lafrance

On Sunday Denny's Atom AE Tanners came home to play just their second home game in eight starts against the visiting Fergus Highlanders. This young Tanner team has shown that they are capable of being among the top of the league and wanted nothing more than a victory at home — and they succeeded.

It was Fergus, however, that came out firing first. Two quick goals at the start of the first period put the home team down early. Acton recovered its composure however and goaltender Logan Stamp, making his first start in the Tanner net, was not to let another puck past him on this day.

Coach Derrick McIntyre, working with a short bench, needed to get creative in his line creation. The result was impressive as his players responded to the challenge. Forwards Thomas Potter, Stephen White, and Connor Mayner seemed to put the Fergus team off balance while Dalton Smith, Sam McCarthy, Avery George and Kyle Crossman refused to allow the Fergus team an easy path to the Acton net. As well, Sean McIntosh worked well in the corners and beautiful positioning by Dawson Wright in front of the Fergus goal somehow could not quite result in a goal.

The third period began with Acton, despite some hard work, still trailing the visitors by a 2-0 score. The Tanners have not been a team to give up on a game this year and Sunday was no different. Early in the third period, Kevin Giordano and Sean McIntosh set up Nick Molinaro who outskated the Fergus defender and scored low on the glove side.

Acton really turned on the heat then and a short while later it was Molinaro again from Connor Mayner and Avery George to tie the game at 2-2. The momentum had clearly swung in the home team's favour and Stephen White, with passes from Samantha McCarthy and Connor Mayner completed the comeback as Acton celebrated a 3-2 victory against the visiting Fergus Highlanders.

This was a fine effort by every player on the team and great tenacity and team character was shown in this impressive win. The Tanners will travel to Port Perry on Saturday for a one-day tournament.
