R.I.D.E. program charges laid

Week 2 (Dec. 06-12/06) of Wellington OPP's 2006 Festive R.I.D.E. campaign saw officers check 15,049 vehicles and lay a number of charges.

Officers issued twelve 12-hour suspensions and one Administrative Driver's Licence suspension of 90 days. They also laid a drinking and driving charge and 37 other charges for various offences.

TOYS FOR CHRISTMAS: Major Dean Locke, top right, from the Acton Salvation Army was at Curves for Women Tuesday morning to collect the hundreds of toys the business had collected in their annual Christmas toy drive. In front are Curves manager Donna Watson and Delina Brown of the staff. Standing to the left of the Christmas tree are Curves member Janet Richardson and Curves staffer Janet McCluskey.
