

Television movies and specials carry distinctive Yule appeal

What would the Christmas season be without the endless stream of movies and specials on television?

Some of the movies never seem to lose their appeal even after decades of viewing.

Favourites include:

“National Lampoon’s Christmas Vacation” (1989) – Those zany Griswolds are up to their antics again! Led by an all-star cast including Chevy Chase and Beverly D’Angelo, the Griswold family Christmas should be merry, but naturally turns into a hilarious disaster. Look for appearances by Julia Louis-Dreyfus (formerly of “Seinfeld”) and Doris Roberts (of “Everybody Loves Raymond”).

“A Christmas Story” (1983) – You won’t want to miss this classic of 1940s Americana which was partly filmed in Toronto. Young Ralphie has his heart set on a Red Rider BB gun for Christmas, but it seems like Mom, teacher and even Santa are certain he’ll “shoot his eye out” with such a gift. Will Ralphie find his heart’s desire under the tree? Watch to find out.

“It’s a Wonderful Life” (1946) – Many versions of this movie have been made throughout the years, but the original outshines them all. When distraught George Baily (Jimmy Stewart) meets a compassionate angel, he learns what life would have been like if he’d never existed. Holiday magic wins out in the end.

“Miracle on 34th Street” (1947) – Another classic that can’t be missed! When a man claiming to be Santa Claus is deemed insane, a young lawyer and a headstrong young girl come to his rescue.

“A Christmas Carol” (1951) – Yet another movie that has spawned a series of more recent remakes. This one stars Alastair Sim as Mr. Scrooge, a bitter, miserly man who doesn’t give a bah humbug about the holiday season. But will a haunting by three ghosts change his mind and ill will?

“A Charlie Brown Christmas” (1965) – Charlie Brown is depressed and can’t find the Christmas spirit. When he is put in charge of the school’s holiday pageant and comes in with a meager Christmas tree, the school kids ultimately learn about the true meaning of Christmas.

“The Nightmare Before Christmas” (1993) – Halloween town resident Jack

Skellington stumbles upon an alternate universe called Christmastown one day. It inspires him to organize a Christmas celebration in his town. The worlds of creepy Halloween characters and bubbly Christmas spirit meet in this stop-action animated flick. Some of the characters may be too scary for younger children, but older ones may enjoy the humour of this PG-rated movie.

AUTHENTIC STONE BAKED PIZZA

Pizzaville

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

Dec. 24 Closing 7 pm
Dec. 25 CLOSED
Dec. 26 Open 7 am to 9 pm
Dec. 31 Open 6 am to Midnight
Jan. 1 Open 7 am to 9 pm

519-853-2040
8 Main St. N Acton (Giant Tiger Plaza)

Merry Christmas & Happy Holidays

from your Fury Friends & Staff at the Acton Veterinary Clinic and The Groomin' Room!

The Acton BIA wishes everyone a Merry Christmas and Prosperous New Year. A special thanks to all those who donated to the Sharing Tree. It was a huge success.

BOXING WEEK

EXCESS INVENTORY CLEARANCE

STARTS TODAY

BLOW OUT PRICING!

Sofa $559
Comes with patterned contrast toss cushions not shown. Matching Loveseat and chair also available.

BLOW OUT PRICING!

Queen Size Set $488
Features Plush Pillow Top with soft teddy bear fabric. Twin, Double and King Size Sets also available.

HURRY IN!

BLOW OUT PRICING!

Recliner $588
Recliner in a soft suede. Choice of a colours.

WHILE QUANTITIES LAST!

Halton Hills FURNITURE & APPLIANCES

Holiday Hours
Fri. 10-8pm, Sat. 9-5pm Closed Sun. Mon. Tues. Open Wed., Thurs., 10-6pm Fri. 10-8, Sat. 9-5 Closed Sun, Mon.
Regular hours resume January 2.

2 Main St. N. Acton ON
519-853-4299