CUNNEYWORTH, Ronald Henry Victor
 May 24, 1929 – February 3, 2007
 Ron passed away peacefully at Peel Memorial Hospital Saturday, February 3, age 77. Beloved husband of Mary Angela (Oresky), father of Wayne Edgar, Allan Ronald (Janet Howard) and Robert George (Connie Mitchell), "gramps" to Amanda Rae and Amber-Lea Cunneynworth, and to Samantha and Stephanie Schueler, Ron was predeceased by his six siblings: Edna May (Glyndwr Hunt), Edgar John (Doris Hackett), Robert Gordon (Lillian Long), William Percival (Jean Budreau), Margaret Ellen (Arthur Cross) and Allan Thomas (Margaritta Cowley). He is survived by a loving family, good friends and many shared memories. Ron was a unique individual and, it's fair to say, a recognizable product of his working class St. Clair Avenue neighbourhood, both now part of Toronto's history. A butcher all his life, he was employed by Canada Packers from age 15 until his retirement. Old school tough and contrary on the outside, he had love in his heart for those who could see it. He was happiest watching horses at the track, reeling in a fish at the end of his line or re-reading a favourite Louis L'Amour cowboy novel. If he could live his life again, he would live out west. Many thanks to Dr. Clive Wulwik, the staff at Orangeville and Peel Memorial hospitals, his home care givers and all those who offered so much support throughout his life. A memorial service and celebration of life will be held Saturday, February 10, 2:00 PM, at Acton Baptist Church, 80 Mill St. E., Acton, Ontario L7J 1H6. Those who knew him will appreciate that he would prefer simplicity and smiles rather than a formal, somber service. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to Acton Baptist Church, or to a charity of your choice.

"There will come a time when you believe everything is finished. That will be the beginning." - Louis L'Amour

DEATHS

PARKER: Craig Hyde Craig Hyde Parker, 54 of Acton, Ontario. Peacefully at home in a room full of love and surrounded by family, January 31, 2007 after a valiant battle with cancer. Loving husband and soulmate of Karen (nee Reczuch). Craig's pride and joy were his children Kyra and Rylan. He will be dearly missed by parents Lewis and Eleanor Parker and his always loving and caring siblings, Christine, Leslie Anne and Matthew. His memory will be treasured by extended family and countless friends. Craig was born in Toronto and was a photographer from early on. He spent many years enjoying the tutelage and friendship of Yuri Dojc, later becoming photographer for the Marcom Group in Mississauga. He valued the many friends he made throughout his career. Craig became a Christian in his 30's and many of his most enduring friendships date from his years at Bloor Street United Church and involvement in study and prayer groups from that time. St. Alban's Anglican Church became his spiritual home in Acton, where he has enjoyed loving support and encouragement. Craig took joy from his community participation through the church and his involvement in Scouting in Acton. The family is very grateful to many healthcare professionals for their exceptional and compassionate care. We wish to especially thank Dr. George McWilliam and the staff at the Acton Medical Centre, Dr. Andrew Bayley, Dr. Paul Zeni and Linda Dougherty and her wonderful North Halton team at Acclaim Health. Craig was, in his quiet and humble way, an exceptional soul. "Craig was a person everyone just had to love". The family will receive friends at the MacKinnon Family Funeral Home "Shoemaker Chapel" 55 Mill Street East, Acton (877-421-9860) on Sunday, February 11th from 2-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. The Memorial Service will be held at Trinity United Church, 70 Mill Street East, Acton on Monday, February 12th at two o'clock. Remembrances to the Princess Margaret Hospital, Canadian Cancer Society or St. Alban's Anglican Church, Acton would be appreciated by the family.

VORNE: Rein "Ray"
 Ray died on February 6, 2007 at the age of 65. He was the son of Linda Raigla and the late Adelbert Vorne and was the step-son of the late Enn "Andy" Raigla. Ray leaves behind: his wife Reni, sons Alex and Rob, brother Mart Raigla (Wynn Clark) and brother-in-law Bill Arentz. Ray spent his youth in Kirkland Lake, where he developed his love of all sports, especially baseball and fishing. After high school he moved to Toronto and worked for Combined Insurance, then spent numerous years with the Ministry of Agriculture and Food followed by several years running the Pro Shop at Georgetown Golf and Country Club. He excelled at all he did: catching fish in supposedly empty lakes, out-picking all blueberry pickers and he knew when a pitcher had lost it, even before the manager did. He will be missed by all in Acton who run garage, trunk and auction sales. Mohawk and Fallsview Casino staff will also miss him. Deepest thanks to Dr. G. Peers and the tremendous nurses at the Complex Continuing Care at Milton Hospital, as well as Dr. A. Kapoor and nurse Becky at the Juravinsky Cancer Centre in Hamilton. The family invite you to help celebrate Ray's life at the MacKinnon Family Funeral Home "Shoemaker Chapel" 55 Mill Street East, Acton on Saturday, February 10, 2007 from 1:00p.m. to 3:00p.m. In lieu of flowers, remembrances to the Canadian Cancer Society would be appreciated.
