Yourway Muffler Novices win Erin OMHA tourney

By Cathy Lee

Sunday, March 11, 2007 was the day the clocks moved forward an hour. It was also the dawn of one of the most thrilling Ontario Minor Hockey Associations' tournaments, sponsored by AMJ Campbell. Many sleep-deprived Novice hockey players shuffled into the Centre 2000 in Erin, hoping to just stay awake.

The teams consisted of four Erin house league teams, a team from Fergus and a team from Shelburne and Woolwich. Only the Novice Acton team was present, Yourway Auto, but that's all it took to shake things up.

Meet Blue Devils

Yourway Auto's first game against the Erin Blue Devils, was an edge-of-your-seat game from start to finish. The first period was scoreless, with both teams using fantastic defensive plays. Things started to heat up in the second period with the Blue Devils scoring the first goal. Yourway's Colin Masse, (assisted by Kaela Holmes) evened up the scoreboard, but hopes were dwindling when two consecutive goals were scored by the Erin team.

With only seconds remaining, Yourway's John McKee (assisted by Jonah Rollins) brought a flicker of hope back by scoring goal number two. The third period was tied by Masse, (assisted by Rollins) bringing the game into an overtime situation. With parents holding their breath in the stands, they watched

Noah McNabb break away with the puck unassisted, to win the game.

Game number two against Erin's Red Fireballs, gave the spectators an amazing display of team work and a hunger to score. And that is just what the Acton team did. When the game was over, Yourway came away with a score of 5-0. Goaltender James Clark was on fire, shutting out the opposing team. Goals were scored by McNabb (2) (assisted by Tyler Carisse), Quinlan Stamp (2) (assisted by Nick Percy and McNabb) and Brandon Holmes (assisted by McNabb).

Meet Shelburne

With two wins under their belt, and an ecstatic group of parents, the stage was set for the championship game against Shelburne. Nerves were beginning to show with the spectators, and a chanting could be heard throughout the building to encourage Acton. As the first period was coming to an end, Masse started the points on the scoreboard, unassisted. Period two had both teams fighting over possession. Amazing defensive and offensive moves were made by both teams.

Period three had everyone on their seats, as Shelburne scored a goal to even things up. With only over five minutes to go, Masse scored his second unassisted goal. That's when everything went crazy. The scoreboard stopped working and parents couldn't tell how many minutes were left to play. There were a few near goals on Shelburne's part, making many spectators gasp.

Only after coaches Russell Lee, Warren Churchman and trainer Ron Stubbington raised their hands in jubilation, did fans know that time had run out and Acton was the reigning champions of the AMJ Campbell LL Tournament.

Congratulations go out to all of the teams that participated.

Spring cleaning

A winter's worth of litter will be collected from all over Halton Hills by volunteers with the Town's Earth Week environmental initiatives, beginning April 20 with Cleanup Day and the 20-minute makeover.

Lead litter buster, Regional Ward 3/4 Councillor Jane Fogal wants all schools to participate this year – 17 did last year – and urged businesses to sign up for the makeover when she announced this year's combined Earth Day/ Earth Week celebrations at Council on Monday.

The community-wide cleanup is April 21.

Police vs. A.H.S.

Rubber match at third annual hockey challenge

The third annual hockey challenge between Halton Region Police and Acton High School is taking place next Thursday, March 29 at 2:25p.m. in Acton arena. Each team has won one game with AHS victors last season.

The game has a new wrinkle this year.

Former NHL referee-in-chief Bryan Lewis will officiate.

The teams will be collecting donations for the food bank at the game. If anyone has any old equipment they'll accept it and donate it to the minor hockey association.
