

Illegal burn at Speyside

A reported house fire on Highway 25 north of Speyside at 9:09 Saturday morning turned out to be a homeowner with an illegal fire in his back yard.

The fire was extinguished and the burn permit requirements were explained to the homeowner.

Easter is a very special time of year.

Back Facts

From the April 6, 2006 pages of The New Tanner.

One year ago: A small army of dedicated volunteers – faces in the fight against cancer – set out to knock on each and every door in Acton, asking for money to fight cancer.

In other news:

•Halton announced it will build an addition at Robert Little Public School to house a new Our Kids Hub, but it will not develop any new daycare spaces in Acton.

•A young Rockwood mom died of smoke inhalation after running back into her blazing home to save her babies, not realizing they were safe with her mother on the lawn of their Main Street South home.

From the April 4, 2002 pages of The New Tanner.

Five years ago: Downtown Acton merchants must seize the opportunity that growth brings, according to Halton Chair Joyce Savoline who told local business owners that Acton was in “evolution” and change brings new chances.

In other news:

•The Acton Minor Bantam Tanners mined Gold at a CAN/AM hockey championship in Lake Placid, New York, taking the title after several decisive wins.

•Dufferin Aggregates won three industry awards, including a silver medallion for community service at its Acton quarry.
