Local athletes honoured by Town

A gymnast with his eye on the Olympics, a Gold medal winning field lacrosse team and national cheerleading champions were among the athletes honoured by the Town at a municipal awards ceremony at the Civic Centre on Monday.

The ceremony – attended by proud parents and family members armed with cameras – is the Town's way to thank Halton Hills citizens whose accomplishments on local, provincial, national and world stages brought honour and recognition to the town.

Limehouse gymnast Marc Gaudet de Lestard, 14, was the top Ontario athlete at an international meet in California last month, placing third overall of 27 athletes in his level, with firsts on rings and parallel bars, and third on vault.

De Lestard, who trains six times weekly with the Halton Hills Gymnastics Club, is a Grade nine honour student at Acton High School.

Last year, he was overall provincial Gold medallist in Men's Artistic Gymnastics, earning a berth on Team Ontario at the Eastern Championships where he was the overall Gold medallist with Silver medals on the pommel horse and parallel bars, Bronze on floor, vault and high bar, and fourth on rings, helping Team Ontario to a second-place overall finish.

Acton's Bret Allonby and Braidyn Vidler play on the Halton Hills Novice II Bulldogs field lacrosse hockey team that won the Gold medal in Novice C Division at the Provincial championships last year.

With an 11-4 rookie season, the team had three decisive wins at the Ontario championship in Kitchener, and then doubled Mimico 6-3 for the title.

There are four Acton teens – Alexandra Galan, Alandra Telschow, Leanne Briand and Anastasia Andricopoulos – on the CheerForce Flyers that were honoured as the Ontario Gold and Canadian Bronze cheerleading champions.

The Flyers, who train at the Halton Hills Gymnastics Club, showed their winning ways with a cheer in the crowded council chambers.

Other athletes honoured by the Town include:

- Georgetown Thunderbolts Track & Field Club members Courtney Chambers, Chelsea Dixon and Riel Flack

- Halton Hills Gymnastics Centre multi-medal winning member Alex Bowmer

- Halton Hills Blue Fins Swim Club members Chelsea Burton, Sophia Cieplucha, Elizabeth Skuriat, Marc Laforet, Tasha Truscott and coach Rob Masson.
