Wellington OPP officers foiled a break-in at Nicklin Auto Parts in Eramosa Township last Thursday. Officers arrived at the Eastview Road business just before 6:30 p.m. and found four youths had entered the compound. Two were apprehended at the scene and officers found two more a short distance away.

A 14-year-old girl and two 16-year-old boys from Guelph, were arrested and charged with breaking and entering. They are scheduled to appear in Youth Court in Guelph on August 1st.

Also charged is an 18-year-old Guelph youth. He is scheduled to appear in Guelph Court on July 30th.

Before the sun came up on Monday, a truck drove through a window of the Petro-Canada gas station on Alma Street in Rockwood. County of Wellington OPP officers attended and found a pick-up had twice reversed into the entrance door, causing glass to shatter. The truck was last seen heading eastbound on Alma St. The driver was described as a man in a white T-shirt.

The truck was possibly a Dodge from the 1990s, two-tone black with a gray bottom.

Officers are asking that if anyone has information regarding this damage they could call the County of Wellington OPP office in Rockwood at 519-856-1506 or they could leave an anonymous tip with Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 (1-800-222-TIPS).

Vandalism at School

Monday June 25 at about 1:35 p.m. Wellington OPP officers responded to a fire in the old Erin Public School located at 185 Main Street, Erin.

Officers found that local youth have been breaking into this abandoned building and causing some damage to the inside. On this date the Erin Fire Department responded to a fire that had been set to four cans of primer paint inside the school. The fire was easily extinguished and there was minimal damage. No suspects were located and investigation is continuing.

Police are asking if anyone has information regarding trespassers to this property or anyone involved in this incident to call the County of Wellington OPP Rockwood office at 519-856-1506 or leave an anonymous tip at the Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 (1-800-222-TIPS).

Back Facts

One year ago in The New Tanner:

- Mathew Michael McMillan – fondly called 3M by his Grandpa – couldn't wait to be born, making a speedy appearance as his mother was being readied for transport to hospital from her Kingham Road home.

- Halton police ask people who posted outgoing mail in the community mail box on Tanners Drive to ensure it arrived at its destination because of a theft from the box.

- The Acton Agricultural Society hit an interim fundraising threshold, prompting Town Council to accelerate the tendering process for its new building in Prospect Park.

Five years ago in The New Tanner:

- T J's Lucky Moon, a three-year-old gelding born and bred on Dublin Line by Gino Molarino, pulls off an upset win at the $1-million Queen's Plate, paying 82-to-1.

- Frozen yogurt won't be the only culture at this summer's Leathertown Festival – organizers have added a culture and art area, a juried art show and a tarot card reader.

- Halton Hills Hydro customers pay the lowest rates of any surrounding utility – that's the bottom line of the mid-sized utility's second annual report after government deregulation.
