18-year-old arrested for assaulting 17-year-old male

An 18-year-old Kingham Road male was arrested last Thursday night in connection with the June 30 assault of a 17-year-old Acton male who suffered broken and chipped teeth in the attack.

Police said the suspect was charged with assault causing bodily harm as he was stopped while driving in Acton on Thursday night.

Police said the assault occurred in the Duby Road/Kingham Road area when the accused got out of his car and punched the victim, who was walking in the area, several times in the face.

The victim was able to partially identify his attacker. Police would not say what led to the attack.

B&E

A cash box was stolen and phone and FAX lines cut during a weekend break-in at The New Tanner offices on Queen Street.

The thief jimmed the lock in the rear door to get into the office, which was searched, resulting in the theft of the petty cash.

POLICE/FIRE REPORT

Business next door at the Source was also affected because its telephone lines were also cut, allowing only cash sales until repairs could be made late on Tuesday.

No permit

Smoke from a backyard burn drew Acton firefighters to a Cook Street residence at 2:36 on Sunday afternoon where they extinguished an unauthorized fire.

Illegal burn

Acton crews extinguished a small fire in the backyard of a house on Main Street South at 10:24 on Monday night. The property owner did not have a required burn permit.

Freezer smell

An unknown odor reported in the Sobeyes store at 3 a.m. last Thursday, turned out to be from a freezer that had failed and was thawing.

Police need tips

Halton Regional Police are investigating a suspicious fire in Acton.

Shortly before 4 a.m. on June 17, Police and Halton Hills Fire Department responded to a truck fire on Sixth Line. Upon arrival, the fire department found the truck to be fully engulfed in flames. Arson is suspected.

The truck had been parked on the side of the road and was listed "For Sale" at the time of the fire. Total loss is not yet known.
