

Donor Appreciation Ceremony in new building

On, Friday September 7, Acton Agricultural Society held a Donor Appreciation Ceremony that also included the unveiling of the donor plaques mounted in the lobby of the Dufferin Rural Heritage Community Centre, the Society's new building in Prospect Park. Donors in the top five donor categories were presented with a plaque or certificate. The targeted goal for fundraising was $750,000, of which about 85% has been reached to date.

Janis Fread was the MC for the evening, which included presentation in categories to Outstanding Community Builders, Community Builders, Building and Community Benefactors.

The Outstanding Community Builders, plaques were presented by Norm Elliott, co-chair of the "It's More Than Fair" fundraising committee, to Acton Agricultural Society, Chapman and Purity Life Health Products, Dufferin Aggregates and the Town of Halton Hills received respectively by Fair President Dale Hewitt, Elyse Chapman, Andrea Bouvrie and Mayor Rick Bonnette.

Miss Acton Fair, Sarah O'Hearn presented Community Builder plaques to Community Living North Halton, Drexler Construction, Georgetown Soccer Club and Mattamy Homes.
