Committee members arriving at 6:30 in the morning to set up were greeted with a temperature of 1 degree and a heavy frost blanketing the ground.

As the sun rose however, the weather improved dramatically and it turned into a perfect day for the event. The official opening took place at 8 am with Acton's Citizens of the Year Bill and Diane Spielvogel cutting the ribbon, with help from the newly crowned Miss Acton Fall Fair Emily Stirtzinger, first runner-up Madison Kottack and second runner-up Cassandra Stoke.

Also in attendance for the opening were the President of the Agricultural Society Dale Hewitt, second vice-President Frank Hanes, Miss Acton pageant committee member Natalie Tuitman, Mayor Rick Bonnette and his wife Josey, Councillor Clark

Somerville, MPP Ted Arnot, and several volunteers and long time participants.

Many families as well as single participants arrived throughout the day to run, walk, jog or cycle around the track. In doing so, they helped to continue Terry's dream of finding a cure for cancer. There were also many canine
