Praises Councillors

To the editor,

On behalf of the Acton Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society, I would like to express my sincere thanks to Councillor Clark Somerville, for all his fundraising efforts to help make this devastating disease history.

Councillor Somerville's combined efforts netted the Cancer Society and the Acton Angels over $2,500. He buzzed off his hair (joined by Rebecca Bath), helped create the "Spring Salad for the cure" and put himself up on the auction

Thank you again Mr. Somerville. It is commitment like this that will hopefully aid in the extinction of cancer in our near future.

Sincerely

BRANCH No. 197 LEGION NEWS By James Hayes P.R.O.

Comrades,

Last Saturday morning Branch President Wes Kutasienski and a number of members attended the raising of several new flags on the Cenotaph in Rockwood.

We had the pleasure of meeting one of our soldiers, a Rockwood native who has just returned from a tour of duty in Afghanistan. It was my privilege to shake Captain Brendan Insley's hand on that occasion.

Captain Insley is serving with the 2nd. Regiment of Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

His address to all in attendance was very well received, and I have posted a copy on the notice board at the Branch, for anyone who wishes to read it.

Last Sunday afternoon, family and friends of Mary and Ab Irwin gathered in the Ladies Lounge at the Legion to help them celebrate their union of 60 years.

We sincerely wish them continued health and happiness.

There will be Initiation of new members, at the Branch tomorrow evening, Friday Oct. 26 at 8 p.m. Why not come down and welcome our new comrades?
