Comrades,

The Branch and Ladies Auxiliary mourn the passing of our comrade Julia Curry. Our deepest sympathy is extended to her family at this most distressing time.

*At the going down of the Sun
And in the morning
We will remember them.*

The New Members Initiation ceremony held last Friday saw the following members welcomed into the Legion family: John Dack, Clinton Girdwood, Isabel McNeily, Darlene Jordan, Sytska Drijber, Susan Pimental, Kevin Sacrey, Heather Sacrey and Ben Sikkema.

We welcome our new comrades, and look forward to their active involvement in all branch activities.

Remembrance Day parade will be held Saturday, Nov.

10. Assembly at Hide House at 10:15 a.m. Parade begins at 10:30 a.m. Branch service at 12:20 p.m. Dinner at 1:15 p.m.

Our next general meeting is Thursday, Nov. 1 at 7:30 p.m. Our zone commander, Ethel Eastwood, will be attending our meeting. Please try to attend.

*Yours in comradeship,
L.A. President,
Annmarie Lowin*

Special anniversary cake

The September meeting of Dublin Women's Institute (W.I.) was held at the Rockwood home of Kathleen Alder, and ten members answered the roll call: When and Why Did you Join the Women's Institute?"

Jane Baynton, President, opened the meeting with a humorous reading entitled "Why is farming so tough today?"

Secretary/Treasurer, Jean McLean, gave her financial Report and the Board meeting report was given by District Director, Sharon Anderson.

In celebration of the 110th anniversary of the Women's Institute, Maisie Lasby had made and beautifully decorated a cake with the Institute crest. This was enjoyed by everyone during the social time, which wrapped up the evening.
