LADIES AUXILIARY

Ladies Auxiliary News
Friday, Nov. 9, Colour Parties of the Ladies Auxiliary and the Branch plus members attended St. Joseph Catholic School for their Remembrance Day celebration.

Saturday, Nov. 10, Remembrance Day parade, service and dinner were held. We had an excellent turnout. The weather was perfect for all of us to give thanks to our veterans. Thank you, ladies, for helping in the kitchen and serving the dinner.

Sunday, Nov. 11, we gathered at the cenotaph at 11 a.m. to honour those who sacrificed their lives.

Monday, Nov. 12, Janet and Tom Grant attended the MSB Public School to help the students with their Remembrance Day presentation.

Ladies, remember to pay your dues by Dec. 31. Contact our secretary, Janet Grant.

Please contact Sue Poulsen regarding our Christmas party on Dec. 6. Reply by Nov. 19, 2007.

Yours in Comradeship,
L.A. President
Annmarie Lowin

You are proof that advertising in the The New Tanner works!

Comrades,
If you were unable to attend the Remembrance Parades on Nov.10 and 11 your loss was greater than usual, we had the pleasure of listening to 8 year old Austin Middleton recite from memory "In Flanders Fields" on both occasions. To him and his parents we give our Thanks.

Branch 197 Poppy chairman, George O'Donnell wishes to express his appreciation to the members and citizens of Acton for their generous support in time and donations to this year's campaign, to those who picked up the Torch on blitz night, and those who distributed the boxes to the merchants and businesses in our town we give our sincere thanks.

We must give a special thanks to Michelle at Super Cuts who allows us to use her salon for a Remembrance Day memorial every year. Thank you, Michelle.

The monies donated during the Poppy campaign are held in trust, and may only be used by the Legion for very specific purposes, the aid and comfort of veterans and their dependents is a major one.

Honours & Awards: For those who were unable to attend the awards ceremony on November 4, arrangements have been made to allow you to pick up your long service pin at the Branch, please talk to the steward.

Comedy Night at the Legion is tomorrow night Friday the 16th, starting at 8 p.m. in the games room. Everyone who has heard Troy Winters knows he is the perfect candidate to headline this event. We are taking it a step further and asking for audience participation. If you have a funny joke or a good story feel free to share it and you will be eligible for a prize. This entertainment is considered an "adult evening". See you there. Volunteer bartenders' Appreciation Night Friday, Nov. 16 at 7:30 pm.

The Seniors Christmas Dinner, co-sponsored by Acton Rotary and Acton Legion will be held on November 27 at Halton Hills Furniture and branch 197. Cost $3 each, proceeds to charity.

Santa's Visit: Santa Claus will be making his annual visit to the Branch on Sunday, December 9. Entertainment starts at 1pm. With Santa scheduled to arrive at 2:30pm

Coming Events: Dec.15. Turkey Roll, 2-6 pm in the Games Room.

Yours in comradeship,
Jim Hayes, Branch 197 PRO.
