Willow Lanes Celebrating 30 years in Acton

Annie and Harry Kerkhof were celebrating 30 years of serving customers at Willow Lane Natural Foods on Saturday, Feb. 23, 2008.

The business began when Emily Lysholm opened in 1978 in the Acton Mews Plaza. Marj Thornton took over and moved the store to 15 Willow St. South. For the past 15 years, Annie and Harry have been the friendly, helpful faces behind the counter.

All customers shopping at one of the oldest retail stores in Acton took home deals, free samples, free re-usable bags and a chance to win a gift basket.

Annie says, "We try to give customers what they want at reasonable prices plus great service. We also pride ourselves on being knowledgeable in the natural foods, herbs, spices, vitamins and supplements we sell. Our customers are very loyal, so it was a pleasure to raffle a number of beautiful, valuable gift baskets".

The lucky winners from Acton and surrounding communities are: Barbara Edmunston, Audrey Denny, Eleanor Patterson, Julie Wallace, Maggie Brierley, Sue Robbins, Keri Kuechler, Shannon Furzer, Eyvonne Vanderheyden, Joanne Kroezen, Judy de Blauw, and Aneta Kuzma.

"Health is not just a trend in Acton, it's a way of life," Annie Kerkhof says, "People in Acton and surrounding area started looking at the local health food store, for expertise, quality and service, as far back as 1978."
