Acton club hosts Spiel final

Five curling clubs participated in the week long Halton -Peel Curling Club, Saturday, Jan 17.

Forty-eight teams entered the spiel from Acton, North Halton, Milton, Orangeville and Brampton. Games started on Saturday, Jan 10 and were played all week among all five curling clubs with the finals in Acton last Saturday.

The "A" Flight winners were from the north Halton Club and included Steve Leachman, Jamie Waller, Denis Cardick, Daryl Hortman and Ian Meldrum.

A banquet and awards dinner hosted by the Acton club was held Saturday evening sponsored by AMJ Campbell Van Lines, RBC Royal Bank (Acton), Colonial Tree Service (Limehouse), and G.W. Martin Appraisal Ltd. (Brampton).

Novice Chargers lose close game to Guelph

On Thursday January 19, the Chargers went to Guelph and came up short in a 3-2 final score.

The game was close right from the opening faceoff, both goalies not letting anything get by.

The game was scoreless until the third period when Guelph opened the scoring. Noah St. Denis responded for Acton, with assists going to Jacob Dawkins and Jack Kennedy. Guelph then scored two goals to go ahead 3-1.

With exactly five minutes remaining, Jake Case made it close with help from Kyle MacDonald and Nicholas Jones.

Acton pulled the goalie in the last minute and although they had a couple
