House league award for Rockwood's Mike Dawkins

Last Saturday evening the Acton Houseleague Hockey Association (AHHA) held their annual Sponsorship/Coach's Appreciation dinner and dance. Over 100 people showed up to enjoy a night of dancing and a catered meal at Rockmosa Community Center in Rockwood.

Many sponsors were on hand to celebrate the special event as well as coaches and parents from the Houseleague Hockey Association.

Presented during the evening was the AHHA's Annual President's trophy. Award winner this year is Mike Dawkins, who was presented the award by Ted Saelzer, current president of the AHHA. This award is presented annually to an AHHA board member who has gone over and beyond during the season to help the kids of Halton Hills have fun in the recreational hockey league as well as spend many more hours helping out the league in it's numerous activities including coaching, convening and spending many more hours fundraising and helping out in other Houseleague related initiatives.

Many prizes given out during the evening: Carrie Gallant was the winner of a free hockey registration for next season. Carrie is also a league sponsor representing Nova Training & Consulting.

Other prize winners included Dan Dewtweiler who won a pair of tickets to the 1st annual AHHA golf tournament being held June 6 at Acton meadows golf club.

The league was thankful to all of its sponsors for their support during the season as well as all of the volunteers who put many hours of their own time to ensure the kids in Halton Hills enjoy hockey in Acton.

Goalies dominate playoffs in Acton Ladies' Hockey

In Acton Ladies Hockey Round-Robin layoffs Friday night, all the team goalies sparkled in preserving points for their respective teams. It was Sister Kissers all around.

In the first game the Staying Alive Fitness Cougars and the DNR Contracting Devils played to a 0-0 tie. Janette Jensen and Louise Keunzig each took turns making saves to earn the shutouts. Kuenzig made an enormous save in the dying seconds preserving the tie.

In the second game X Marks the Fitness Spot Sharks and the Acton Optical Lighting battled to a 1-1 tie. Carrie Gallant put the Fish up 1-0 with a power play goal. Liz Holmes drew the assist.

Daina McKellar tied it late in the second period with an assist to Andrea Martin.

From there on, Shark goalie Jen Swan and Lightning goalie Joanne Cooper took turns making sparkling saves to keep the tie.

This Friday, the Sharks host the Cougars at 10pm. The 11pm game sees Devils facing off against Lightning. The Championship game will be on Friday, March 27, times to be determined.

Some more great ladies hockey playoff action comes to the Acton arena this Friday night.
