IN MEMORIAM

MCKNIGHT, William James Martin (Jim)
July 19, 1914 - January 12, 2007
Dad (Papa) It's been 3 years now since you been gone, and there's a family who misses you sadly, in a home where you used to be. A family who wanted to keep you, but God willed it not to be. We did not know that evening what sorrow the next day would bring. You bid no one a last farewell, no chance to say goodbye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. God gave us the strength and courage to face that awful day. But what it meant to lose you, no one will ever know. When shadows of night have fallen and we are all alone. In our hearts there comes a longing, if only you would come home. We mourn for you in silence; no eyes can see us weep. But many a silent tear is shed, while others are asleep. They say that hearts don't really break, dear God that isn't true. That day that we lost you Dad (Papa), our hearts broke right in two. Wrap your arms around him Lord, and keep him in your loving care. A few more steps, a few more years and soon we'll meet you there. Of all that life has given us, and all that's left to do. We will never know a greater gift, then the years we shared with you.
It's been 3 years Dad since you been gone. We thought it would get easier but it still hurts as much today as it did 3 years ago, missing you more then you can imagine. Gone but never ever forgotten, always in our hearts.
Love Colleen, Willis, Robbie, Vikki, Fluke who is now with you, Darby and your Great Grandson Jacob that you never got to meet, but he will know that you were the Greatest Papa ever. He has your sparkle in his eyes Dad.

At the going down of the sun in the morning, we will remember them.
