

VETERAN COMFORT: During a visit to the Veteran's wing at Sunnybrook Hospital on Sunday, Acton Legion Branch President Wes Kutasienski and Service Officer Dave Crook (right) presented a personalized blanket to Veteran Peter Ryan. – Submitted photo

A selection of Acton activities captured by Tanner photographers.

QDF TIME: Snow soccer was the QDF – quality daily fitness – activity for Brad Neufeld's Grade eight class at McKenzie-Smith Bennett School last Thursday. – Frances Niblock photo

BLADE READY: Skating conditions were perfect for Acton's Zachary Knight, 7, (right) and Jackson Balance, 6, on Fairy Lake for Sunday's Winterfest party at the Legion that included snowmobile and quad rides, games, an outdoor fire and marshmallows. – Ted Tyler photo

SHOW OF PRIDE: Pauline Barlow (left) and Eileen Dix enthusiastically supported the Olympics at the Acton Seniors Dinner last week. – Submitted photo

BELLY BALL: Legion member Kathy Hall led a round of belly ball as part of the Branch's indoor Winterfest events that she helped organize on Sunday. – Ted Tyler photo

CARD SHARKS: Everyone had fun on Saturday night at the Knox Presbyterian Church in Acton. Parishioners (from left) Ken Hodgson, Kae Hansen, Carol Petty and Faye Pink enjoyed a joke and a friendly game of cards in the church hall. – Denise Paulsen photo