Season ends for Acton High girls hockey team

By Frances Niblock

A 4-1 loss to St. Thomas Aquinas ended the season for Acton High School's girls' hockey team. The squad started slow in Monday's quarterfinal Halton Secondary School Athletic Association playoff game

Novice in semi-finals

The RBC Sponsored Novice Acton Tanners advanced to the semi-final round of the OMHA playdowns where they face neighbouring rivals Erin-Hillsburgh Devils in a best-of-five series. The first game took place in Acton last Saturday with the Tanners' early goal by Michael Holmes (assists went to Daniel Nascimento and Caleb Downs). That goal was matched by the Devils and the first period ended with the teams tied 1-1.

The Devils started the scoring in the second period, but the Tanners matched it with one of their own just as quickly, thanks to Nascimento off a set up from Holmes and Downs. Some hard work by the Tanners defence helped keep the Devils at bay for most of the period, but they managed to get one more goal to end in Oakville. Christine Bennett scored Acton's only goal with help from Jessica Cutting.

"The girls played really poorly and were down 3-0 at the end of the first period, and although they picked it up, they never recovered," teacher/coach Shawn

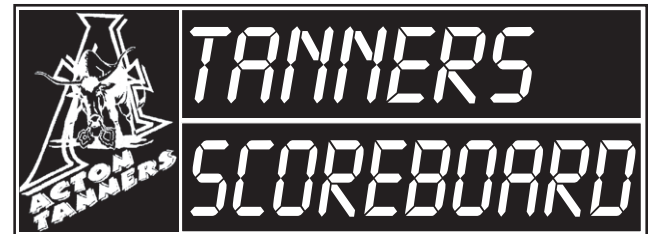

Brown said on Tuesday,

Brown said the three Grade nine players on the team helped with the successful season that included a 9-2 rout of Burlington Central last week.

Rebecca Woolford had a hat trick in that game and singles went to Kaylee

Kearns, Savannah Muir, Christine Bennett, Jessica Cutting, Lauren Vermeulen and Justine McIntyre.

"Our girls were more hungry for the win in that game," Brown said, acknowledging that Burlington had a short bench in the must-win game.
