

MORNING SUN: The swans having returned to Fairy Lake, a sure sign of the arrival of warmer weather, were enjoying a paddle about in the sun last Saturday morning as the last of the ice melted. The predicted warm weather this weekend will make for a perfect hike down to the lake to enjoy the sun and all the lake has to offer. – Ken Baker photo

FIRST INSTALMENT: The Lions and Lioness Clubs of Rockwood were happy to present a donation to the East Wellington Family Health Team last week. This was the first instalment towards a $20,000 commitment to support the Health Team. GLENLEA DIG: Halton design supervisor Brenda Kingsmill helped explain the Region's $7.6-million watermain and sewer replacement project under eight streets in the Glenlea subdivision at an open house on Wednesday at Acton arena. The project will begin this summer and take two years to complete. – Frances Niblock photo

EASTER HAM: The Lioness Club in Rockwood sold 130 tickets to the third annual Ham Dinner at the Rockmosa last week. The funds raised will support the East Wellington Family Health Team's operation of the new medical building in Rockwood. – Denise Paulsen photo
