IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory Walter Barlow May 24, 2009
God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not meant to be, So he put his arms around you and whispered "Come to Me". With tearful eyes we, saw your smile fade away. Although we loved you deeply, we could not make you stay. Hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.
 Pauline, Pat, Susan, John, Tim, Mike, and families.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank everyone who sent in nominations on my behalf, for Citizen of the Year, and the Acton Rotary Club for all it's hard work in selecting me for this award. Also, I want to thank everyone for all of their phone calls and cards of congratulations, and all those who attended my special night, including all the speakers and everyone who presented me with their lovely awards. I am very grateful to The New Tanner and the Georgetown Independent for their excellent coverage on my special night. Thanks to the Royal Canadian Legion for the use of their auditorium and the Legion Ladies for the excellent dinner. I want to thank Brian Robertson for all his help.

Ever so grateful Ivan Kilby
