

ACTON SENIORS' RECREATION CENTRE

BY JULIE CONROY

The Italian social dinner was a great success; everyone enjoyed the lasagne, salads and tortufo ice-cream and fresh fruits. Laura Pauline Mammone entertained us with a variety of music from classical to Broadway hits. She ended with "Don't Cry For Me Argentina." Laura has just completed her first year at Western University majoring in Music. She has a beautiful voice, and was accompanied on the piano by Nicole Knight who is a graduate of Western University, majoring in Music.

Real had lots of beautiful house plants as door prizes and Doreen McIntyre, Pat Jones, Irene Breen, Betty Holmes, Bill Service, Siena Ancker, Robert Crawford and Brian Lidbury were the lucky winners. It was Brian's lucky night as he also won the 50/50.

The Birthday Tea was well attended with 27 members and their guests celebrating their birthdays that occurred in April and May. Administrative assistant Michelle's seven-year-old daughter Rachel delighted everyone with her tap dance routine. She had recently won a trophy for her dancing. The cold wet rainy weather brought out the Bid Euchre players two weeks ago and Muriel Dzieria had the only mooner. This week there were no mooners.

The New Members Tea will be on Tuesday, June 1. If you are a new member you will receive an invitation in the mail. The board members will be attending. If you would like information on what the Centre has to offer you, this is a great time to get your questions answered. If you had thought of volunteering in any capacity, your board members will be happy to suggest where your skills will be appreciated. We are always looking for volunteer's whether it is once a week, every other week, or only on special occasions. If you are new in town or recently retired and have more time on your hands, volunteering is a great and satisfying way to meet people.

Thinking of meeting new people, the second annual Acton and Georgetown Seniors Centre dance is on Friday, June 4 at the Acton Legion in the games room. Last year it was lots of fun, and the D.J. played music that appealed to everyone, whether it was slow dancing, jumping around as a group, the good old fashioned quick step, or just listening and watching. It wasn't too loud. The tickets are available at the Acton and Georgetown Seniors Centres.

Acton Seniors Centre members Dave and Joan Maloney told me that they were bowling for the Halton zone Ontario Seniors Games Bowling last week in Georgetown, and have advanced to the finals which will be held in Oshawa. They were on the same team as George and Pat Baines and June Longstreet from Georgetown. Congratulations and good luck.

Also participating in the Games were Acton Seniors Centre carpet bowlers. They played Georgetown Seniors Centre last week. Sadly, Acton will not be advancing to the finals. The top three teams move up.

The Ontario Seniors Games held the Halton Region Cribbage play-offs at Acton on May 25, and Acton, Georgetown, Milton, Burlington and Oakville competed. We had our fingers crossed for Mary Walsma and Gerry Kroezen.

We hope to see many of the Centre's volunteers at the Halton Hills Volunteer Appreciation evening at the Gellert Centre on Tuesday, June 8 at the 6:30 p.m. The card you would have received in the mail is your invitation, but it is R.S.V.P. You can phone the Centre and ask the receptionist to add your name to the list of volunteers attending, and Michelle will e-mail the list.

The 50/50 was not won last Friday, so the amount should be around $150 next week.
