

A Black and White affair

Enjoying the decor, acoustics, and entertainment at the gala in the newly renovated Town Hall.

A packed house thoroughly enjoyed the Black and White dinner/gala at the Town Hall Centre on Friday night – nostalgically dancing to the sweet sounds of the Shaynes, a hot Acton band in the 60s who reunited for one night, and the Occasional Notes and DJ. Guests were impressed with the delicious meal, the great acoustics and the classy decorating. Proceeds from the event will be used to continue restorations/renovations at the old town hall, including installation of an elevator. Photos by Ted Tyler and Denise Paulsen.

The gala was so well attended that dancing, behind the stage spilled over into the hall.

Kathleen Dills could not resist toe tapping and the snapping her fingers as she grooved to the music of the Shaynes.

Kathy Sanford and Father Bob Bulbrook demonstrated skill and flair as they cut a rug, enjoying the music and decor and the gala.

AND THE BAND PLAYED ON....AND ON: The Shaynes, reunited after 45 years, entertained at the Black and White Gala sounding as fresh as they did in days past. Taking their final bow, only after a lengthy encore session, are (left to right): Bernie Frueler - Keyboard, Ken Tosher - Guitar and vocals, Bill McEnery - Lead Guitar, Gerald Weick - Drums, Lloyd McIntyre - Bass Guitar, Ann McIntyre - Singer/Tamborine, and Terry Churchill - Singer.

Kathy Hall (Hall Decorator) and husband Allen enjoyed every aspect of the gala event.

These fine young ladies spared no effort when it came to enjoying the party, music and dance at the gala.

He may look serious, but Drummer Gerald Weick had as good a time as anyone!
